

PRiME
Program in Rural M&E

IMPACT EVALUATION COURSE

PRiME's Impact Evaluation course is a tailored training for professionals who wish to build advanced capacities applied to rural development.

The course content draws from the best international practices and field experiences from IFAD's Independent Office of Evaluation (IOE) and has a workshop-based design that allows participants to work through tasks and problems that mimic their daily activities.

COURSE STRUCTURE

Face-to-face training:
workshops,
lectures and plenaries

Online assessments:
multiple-choice questions and case studies

Languages: English
French Spanish

Diploma:
earn a diploma
after completing the assessment

TOPICS	After the course, participants:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to Impact Evaluation • Experimental Evaluations • Non-Experimental Approaches • Challenges in Evaluating Rural Projects • Applied exercises in Evaluation Design and Case Studies 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Acknowledge the importance and types of questions impact evaluations can answer. ▶ Understand key concepts of Impact Evaluation. ▶ Identify when and how to use each Impact Evaluation approach. ▶ Recognize the main challenges in evaluating rural projects.

DURATION
One-week
(+40 hrs)

TUITION FEE
2000 USD

REQUIREMENTS

- Basic statistical knowledge
- Basic skills on statistics software
- Fluency in the language of instruction

Dates and location: The dates and location of the courses varies. Please visit our webpage and social media to learn about upcoming courses.

About PRiME

PRiME is a global training and certification framework in monitoring and evaluation (M&E) with a focus on rural development, implemented and developed jointly by the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) and the Centers for Learning on Evaluation and Results (CLEAR).

If you want more information, please visit primetraining.global or write to ifad-clear@cide.edu

 @PrimeTraining
 @TrainingPRiME
 linkedin.com/school/primetraining

